
Channel Islands National Marine Sanctuary Marine Reserves DEIS

BPA assisted NOAA by completing sections for their Draft

Environmental Impact Statement with particular focus on analysis and write-up of information about the Sanctuary's affected environment, the human uses of the study area, and the purpose and need for the proposed action. The proposed action would establish the largest state-federal marine protected areas for the West coast of the USA.

