
Channel Islands National Marine Sanctuary Draft Management Plan/ DEIS

BPA assisted NOAA by completing sections for their Draft
Management Plan

(Volume I), with particular focus on analysis and write-up of information about the Sanctuary's affected environment, the human uses and federal and state regulations associated with the study area. The Draft Management Plan represents a major revision of the original 1983 management plan.
